

Armstrong County Community Action Agency

Did you know...

Financial assistance may be available to you if you have been affected by the COVID-19 pandemic and your utility bills/rent are in arrears.

For more information please contact Armstrong County Community Action at 724-548-5764. You will be required to complete an application and must meet eligibility requirements for funding.